

For Release: Immediate Release

Contact: Frank Correggio
Public Information Officer

Date: February 25, 2010

Phone: (561) 982-4012
Cell: (561) 239-1941

Fire Explorers Get a Lesson In History

BOCA RATON, FLORIDA – Boca Raton Fire Explorer Post #315 were honored when Mr. Ezra Hill stopped by to speak. Mr. Hill was a member of the famous group of flyers, the Tuskegee Air Men the all black fighter squadron trained in Tuskegee, Alabama. During WW II the group of dedicated heroes gained recognition for the support their fighter squadron gave to the bombing missions in Europe. The “Red Tailed Angels” as they were known never lost a single aircraft that they escorted during the war. Mr. Hill spoke with the Explorers about the history of his group and what they achieved. He stressed to continue their education and follow their dreams. After his talk Mr. Hill autographed copies of his book and showed his Congressional Gold Medal which was presented to the Tuskegee Airmen by President George Bush in Washington DC.

PHOTO’S by Frank Correggio

